Our Mission Statement

*Lord, God, all creation is yours, and you call us to serve you by caring for the gifts that surround us. May the example of St. Isidore urge us to share our food with the hungry and to work for the salvation of mankind. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.
Saint Isidore, Pray for Us.*

Padre Pio's Spiritual Direction

“Join your heart to Jesus’ heart, and be simple of heart the way He wants you to be. Try to reflect the simplicity of Jesus in your life, keeping worldly wisdom and sophistication far from your heart. Try to have a mind that is always pure in its thoughts, always righteous in its ideas, always holy in its intentions. Try to have a will that seeks nothing but God and His preferences and seeks glory and honor only from Him.

Let us mirror Jesus, my dear, in His hidden life. All of His infinite majesty was hidden in the shadows and in the silence of that humble workshop in Nazareth. Therefore let us also try to lead an inner life that is hidden in God.
(To Reffaelina Cerase, July 14. 1914)

LAY CARMELITE (3RD ORDER) OPEN HOUSE

“The soul that walks in love neither rests nor grows tired” (St. John of the Cross)
Is this you? Would you like this to be you?

Come to the Lay Carmelite Open House on Saturday, June 1, 2024 at 9:15 am to learn how the great Carmelite Saints “walked in love” with the Blessed Mother as their guide to seek a deeper relationship with our Lord. If you are a Catholic in good standing, man or woman (Diocesan Priests are welcome) and over 18, desire a deeper contemplative prayer life and have a special place in your heart for the Blessed Mother, we welcome you to consider becoming a part of our Carmelite Family.

Did you know that Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen and Pope St. John Paul II were both Third Order Carmelites?

For more detailed information, please don't hesitate to call our Director, Linda Bealey, TOC, at (516) 642-6719.

What is Holy Trinity Sunday?

*“O Trinity, eternal Trinity! Fire, abyss of love...
Was it necessary that you should give
Even the Holy Trinity as food for souls?...
You gave us not only your Word
Through the Redemption and in the Eucharist,
But you also gave yourself
In the fullness of love for your creature.”*

~ St. Catherine of Siena (c. 1370)

The Catholic Church celebrates this unfathomable mystery each year on the Sunday following Pentecost. In 2024, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity is on May 26.

“Three Persons who are one God because the Father is love, the Son is love, the Spirit is love. God is love and only love, most pure, infinite and eternal love. The Trinity does not live in a splendid solitude, but is rather inexhaustible font of life that unceasingly gives itself and communicates itself. We can in some way intuit this, whether we observe the macro-universe: our earth, the planets, the stars, the galaxies; or the micro-universe: cells, atoms, elementary particles. The ‘name’ of the Most Holy Trinity is in a certain way impressed upon everything that exists, because everything that exists, down to the least particle, is a being in relation, and thus God-relation shines forth, ultimately creative Love shines forth. All comes from love, tends toward love, and is moved by love, naturally, according to different grades of consciousness and freedom.” ~ Pope Benedict XVI

"As we pray to the Trinity, we pray to empty our memory and fill it with the Father; to empty our reasoning power, to be humble and accept the mysteries, and to fill our intellect with Jesus; and to empty our will of ourselves so that we are one with the Spirit." - Mother Angelica

The Catechism (paragraphs 253-255) further explains, stating,

The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons, the “consubstantial Trinity.” The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: “The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e. by nature one God.” In the words of the Fourth Lateran Council of 1215, “Each of the persons is that supreme reality, viz., the divine substance, essence or nature.”

The divine persons are really distinct from one another. “God is one but not solitary.” “Father”, “Son”, “Holy Spirit” are not simply names designating modalities of the divine being, for they are really distinct from one another: “He is not the Father who is the Son, nor is the Son he who is the Father, nor is the Holy Spirit he who is the Father or the Son.” They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: “It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds.” The divine Unity is Triune.

The divine persons are relative to one another. Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another: “In the relational names of the persons the Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three persons in view of their relations, we believe in one nature or substance.” Indeed “everything (in them) is one where there is no opposition of relationship.” “Because of that unity the Father is wholly in the Son and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Son is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Son.”

Novena to Mary of the Immaculate Conception, Patroness of the US

In 1791, America's first bishop, John Carroll, entrusted his diocese - which was the entire country at the time - to Mary. The U.S. bishops affirmed that dedication in 1846, declaring Mary the Immaculate Conception to be patroness of the United States.

The novena prayer comes from the 1959 dedication of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. It was approved that year by Cardinal Patrick O'Boyle, then-archbishop of Washington.

NOVENA

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your Spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother, in union with Mary we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme, eternal dominion and authority.

Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage.

Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy, born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the tempted, sinners - on all who are in need.

Mary, Immaculate Virgin, our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the will of your divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God. Amen.

Reflections

"The foundations of our society and our government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings would cease to be practically universal in our country."
~ Calvin Coolidge

"The fundamental basis of this Nation's law was given to Moses on the Mount. The fundamental basis of our Bill of Rights comes from the teachings which we get from Exodus and St. Matthew, from Isaiah and St. Paul."
~ Harry S. Truman

"This Nation was established by men who believed in God. ... You will see the evidence of this deep religious faith on every hand."
~ Harry S. Truman

GUEST SPEAKER:
DR. JEN DEMARCO

Dr. Jen DeMarco, DO is a pro-life family medicine physician specializing in women's health and infertility. While practicing family medicine in private practice for over 20 years, Dr DeMarco pursued a certification in Women's Health and Infertility at the Saint Pope Paul VI Institute. In addition to her private practice, Dr DeMarco is also the Director of the Gianna Center for Women's Health and Fertility, located in Rockville Centre.

Dr. DeMarco raised her four children as a single mother after her marriage was severely impacted by addiction. She credits her Catholic faith and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit for informing her choices and empowering her vocation as a single mom and a physician. Jen's devotion to Our Lady, praying the rosary and the Eucharist has given her the strength to endure years of difficult trials and to find hope.

Please join us for a morning of prayer and praise and to be encouraged by her inspiring testimony!
